Mobilization

Running for Change.

Thanks so much Chi Phi and all who came out for the inaugural Break Free Run USC - The Race to End Human Trafficking! We had a blast raising funds and awareness to combat human trafficking! We would not have been able to pull it off without our partners, so here's a big thank you to Jump, Artbarld and Bristol Farms.

It's time to sign up for the Break Free Run Folsom on October 7th! Don't miss out on a great event and early bird pricing!

Reintegration

New Job, New Life.

One at-risk youth has found a family in the people she works with at a food stand. Her job is allowing her to learn customer service skills and save money to pursue her dream of becoming a nurse. Having a stable, sustainable job can prevent youth from being vulnerable to human trafficking.

Be an integral part of helping more at-risk youth thrive by donating today!
